

6516209851.txt

Dear Sirs, For a truck driver it is extremely helpful to know the traffic and weather conditions in another city well before you get to them so you can plan ahead of time your route and timing and epc. You can not get local weather and traffic conditions until you are already there and then you have to keep looking for a local radio station.

Thank you Charley Moseley